

When you're thinking about how your new kitchen will actually function, these key elements are the solutions you'll be bound to use—and appreciate—every day.

Cutlery Divider

A designated place for cutlery and utensils helps to keep everything organized.

Wastebasket Pull-Out

Trash is literally the last thing you want people to notice. Put the trash and recycling behind closed doors and out of the way.

Roll-Out Trays

Our most popular accessory lets you easily view and reach anything stored in your cabinets—even in the back.
